

Bite Size Briefing – 10th June 2019

9.30am – 10.00am

Registration

10.00am – 10.05am

Welcome

10.05am – 10.35am

Immigration

As the Brexit negotiations reach their endgame, and the Government is required to finally set out plans for a post-Brexit immigration framework, Magrath Sheldrick will provide a detailed analysis of recent government announcements and the future for the UK immigration regime in 2019. They will also look at trends and developments in immigration law around the world.

Kerry Hough and Ben Sheldrick, Magrath Sheldrick LLP

10.40am – 11:10am

Linking Mobility & Talent Management: A study of current best practices.

For many years organizations have understood the importance of creating synergies between Talent Management and Global Mobility in order to maximize return on investment.

This session will explore some of the emerging practices in this area and provide insights on how leading organizations are actively reimagining their program to enhance future talent strategies.

Alejandra Harris, Cartus

11.10am – 11.40am

Tea/coffee break

11.40am – 12.10pm

AIRINC's 2019 Mobility Outlook Survey

The 2019 Mobility Outlook Survey results are in! Mobility is increasingly focused on delivering value to customers. To achieve this, many are leveraging technology and vendor partnerships to streamline operations and improve the Mobility experience. This session will delve into the highlights in a little more detail.

Carl McClean and Michael Joyce, AIRINC

12.15pm – 12.45pm

Mental Health in the Workplace

Understanding the signs, impact and management of mental health conditions in a culturally diverse workplace.

Claire Hargreaves, BUPA

12.45pm – 1.45pm

Lunch

1.45pm – 2.15pm

Insight to MyGMPD

This session will provide an exciting insight into the latest Expat Academy membership benefit. MyGMPD is a professional development programme for the Global Mobility Industry, allowing you to earn points for the learning you already undertake as part of your role and become an accredited Global Mobility professional.

Expat Academy Team

2.20pm – 2.50pm

The Latest Trends and Insights from the Expat Academy Benchmarking Service

The Expat Academy team will provide an update on the latest trends we are seeing in the marketplace from across our events and the online benchmarking service.

Expat Academy Team

2.50pm – 3.20pm

Tea/coffee break

3.20pm – 3.50pm

MoveAssist

Details to be announced soon

3.55pm – 4.25pm

Employment Law challenges from current global hot spots

Navigating employment law in different jurisdictions can be challenging for multi-nationals organisations not least because it is constantly evolving. Annabel will be discussing employment law from around the globe with a focus on countries or regions with unusual rules or recent changes.

Annabel Mace, Squire Patton Boggs

4.25pm – 4.30pm

Wrap up & Expat Academy Update

4.30pm – 6.00pm

Networking drinks